

Frank Sposaro
813.404.3972
frank.sposaro@gmail.com

Mission Statement

Highly motivated and outgoing, full-time Computer Science Student seeking the opportunity to exercise experience in marketing and promotions resulting in a team contribution.

Education

8/2004 – Present Florida State University Tallahassee, FL

- Senior seeking degree in Computer Science. GPA: 3.04

Experience

8/2005 – Present Tri-Sqox Marketing Tallahassee, FL

Electronic Arts Campus Rep

- Promotions, Advertising, Marketing, Public Relations.
- Plan, execute, report quarterly campaign calendars.
- Train and manage event intern assistants.
- 100+ documented promotions with a vast diversity of companies and organizations.

1/2008 – Present Florida State University Tallahassee, FL

Teacher's Assistant for CGS 2100 (Computer Literacy)

- In charge of grading assignments and exams.
- Course work based on Word 2007, Excel 2007, Access 2007, Power Point 2007.

5/2007 – 8/2007 ARINC Oklahoma, OK

COOP Software Engineer II

- Created a Harris Sec Net 11 Secure Wireless Network.
- Installed and configured Windows 2003 Terminal Services.
- Utilized C++ to perform advanced XML parsing.
- Collected, stored, and managed data gathered from a 1553 bus.
- Mined location data from a RS-232 hardware GPS system.
- Utilized Visual Studio.Net and g++ to create cross-platform compatible executables.
- Designed multi-resolution, event driven GUI interface in VB.NET.
- Provided team with standardized documentation of main and sub procedures.
- Created action item tracking system database utility in ASP and AJAX to run on IIS 5.0.
- Automated tasks for air craft pilots by constructing Winbatch and WIL scripts.
- Installed 2003 Server and Ubuntu on conduction cooled single board computer systems.
- Simulated KC-135 1553 Databus.

Frank.Sposaro@gmail.com

813.404.3972

- Automated internet connection to the Iridium Satellite Service with Linux PPP scripts.
- Recovered unknown Windows passwords to gain control of unknown machines.
- Participated in weekly team meetings to evaluate progression on MAF Data Link Project.

8/2004 – 4/2005

Tri-Sqox Marketing

Tallahassee, FL

Electronic Arts Campus Rep Intern

- In charge of event advertising.
- Program expansion.

Technology Skills

C, C++ , ANSI C

Java 2 Platform

VB.NET, Ada

Prolog, LISP

X86, MIPS Assembly

JavaScript EXT 2.0, AJAX

PHP, ASP, SQL, MySQL

HTML, XML, CSS

Winbatch, WIL

Microsoft Office 2007

Visual Studio.NET 2005

Macromedia Suite

Adobe Suite

VMWare

Windows Vista / XP

Windows 2003 Server

Terminal Services

Linux / Unix Platforms

Troubleshooting

Programming Design

Graph - Table Design

Algorithm Analysis

Database Admin

General Networking

Team Leadership

Communication Skills

Awards

- EA Sports Award for Networking.
- EA Sports Award for Creativity.
- EA Sports Award for Overall Excelled Performance.
- ARINC 2007 August Outstanding Employee of the Month Recognition Award.

Activities

- Member of the Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.
- On graduate, research team specializing in cellular phone architecture.

References

Professor Gary Tyson

Associate Chair, Computer
Science Department

Florida State University

- Phone - (850) 644.3861
- Email - Tyson@cs.fsu.edu
- Website – www.cs.fsu.edu/~tyson

Summer Bradley

Team Manager

Tri-Sqox Marketing

- Phone – 1.888.327.3775
- Email – Summer@easportsrep.com